ITFoK has always given due important to the multimedia documentation of the festival since its inception 2008. The volume and the content of the current edition is substantially different from the previous editions. The team ITFoK 2024 feel that more efficiently has to handle this area of documentation through multimedia.

Each program should be photographed and should maintain high artistic and technical quality in photography, storing and printing.

There are seven venues and various programs at the ITFoK 2024. Theatre Musicals, Conversations, Colloquium, Public lectures, Theatre workshop and allied events are designed with curatorial conceptualization.

Eligibility:

The party should have;

- A minimum ten years' experience in photography and that should include experience in cultural photography; performing art forms including theatre.
- Academic back ground in film and theatre will be desirable.

Work Specifications

- All events scheduled and organized under international theatre festival of Kerala has to be photographed
- As the technological quality maintained a high standard, aesthetical quality also has ti keep the high standard with proper equipment
- A program vise sorted stills has to be submitted in separate folders.
- Content for the social media also provided according to the plan and instructions of the media team of the ITFoK 2023
- The soft copy of the photos should submit within a reasonable after of the each event
- At the end of the all events printed photo album with selected photos has to be submitted

Venues and programs:

• The venues and programs for the documentation could find from festival schedule. The documentation team should follow the announcements of the special programs.

No programs or events should not exclude from the documentation under any circumstances or excuses, even if that not intimated particularly. So necessary feeds should gather from the ITFoK office time after time.

General Instructions

With due respect to the documentation team, we also expect professional ethics of high standard while documenting (recording/shooting) performances

That may include;

- Avoid disturbance to performance and audience in any way
 - Find your space by agreeing others too
 - Should be very cautious in use of flash lights, follow the directions of perforforming
- Each theatre performance should be studies before documenting it, may consult with stage
- managers or person in charge of the event for necessary information and directions. No event should be missed out
- The least quote is not the lone concern to selection of a bid but the technological specifications should also be considered.

Above said are pre- requirements for the service provider, who might be engaged with ITFoK in multimedia documentation. In case of any alteration that should not be devoid of the basic requirements and the directions stated above.

Sincerely

Karivellur Murali

Secretary Kerala Sangeetha Nataka Akademi
