ITFoK 2023

STILL PHOTO DOCUMENTATION

(Guidelines for the Bid)

ITFoK has always given due importance to the multimedia documentation of the festival since its inception 2008, but it has yet to touch its mark of excellence. The volume and content of the current edition is substantially different from the previous editions. The festival directorate ITFoK 2023 strongly feel that there should be far more efficient team to handle this area of documentation through multimedia.

Goal and Purpose:

Each program should be photographed and should maintain high artistic and technical quality in photography, storing and printing.

There are seven venues and various Programmes at the international theatre festival of kerala 2023. Theatres, Musicals, Conversations, Colloquium, Public Lectures and allied events are designed with curatorial conceptualization.

Eligibility:

The party should have;

- A minimum ten years' experience in photography and that should include experience in cultural photography; performing art forms including theatre.
- Academic background in film and theatre will be desirable.

Pre-requisites:

The assigned party should have;

- With the quote should submit a brief of technological specification of the documentation work; the equipment, format of outputs, etc...
- A presentation of documentation plan will be appreciated

Work Specification:

- All events scheduled and organized under international theatre festival of kerala has to be photographed.
- As the technological quality maintained a high standard, aesthetical quality also has to keep the high standard with proper equipment.
- A program vise sorted stills has to be submitted in separate folders.
- Content for the social media also provided according to the plan and instructions of the Media Team of the ITFoK 2023
- The soft copy of the photos should submit within a reasonable after the each event.
- At the end of the all events printed photo album with selected photos has to be submitted.

Venues and Programmes:

- The venues and Programmes for the documentation could find from the festival schedule. The documentation team should follow the announcements of the special Programmes.
- No programs or events should not exclude from the documentation under any circumstances or excuses, even if that not intimated particularly. So necessary feeds should gather from the ITFoK office time after time.

General Instructions:

• With due respect to the documentation team, we also expect professional ethics of high standard while documenting (recoding / shooting) performances.

That may include:

- Avoid disturbance to performance and audience in any way
- Find your space by agreeing others too
- Should be very cautious in use of flash lights, follow the directions of performing time or stage mangers
- Each theatre performance should be studied before documenting it, may consult with stage mangers or person in charge of the event for necessary information and directions.
- No event should be missed out.
- The least quote is not the lone concern to selection of a bid but the technological specification should also be considerd.

Above said are pre-requirements for the service provider, who might be engaged with ITFoK in Multimedia documentation. In case of any alteration that should not be devoid of the basic requirements and the directions stated above.
